INDEX Author & Subject

Index Author & Subject Volume 13 1990–1991

Subject Index—Features

Administrative

Comparing Three Philosophies of Home-School Collaboration—Programs based on these may be related to different levels of success, by Susan McAllister Swap, No. 3, p. 22

Facts Listing Will Reveal District Needs and Trends, by Robert Utermohlen, No. 3, p. 15

Japanese Education—What Can It Teach American Schools?, by James Fallows, No. 4, p. 4

A Model School-Community Relations Program Policy, by Albert E. Holliday, No. 1, p. 4

School-Community Relations for the Twenty-first Century—We need innovative, pro-active partnerships, by Marvin E. Edwards, No. 3, p. 4

Ten Commandments for Leaders, by Frederick Gies, No. 1, p. 36

Ten Lies We Keep Telling Ourselves—Falsehoods can be self-fulfilling prophecies, by William J. Banach, No. 3, p. 29

Schools of the Future—One District's Vision, by Yvette del Prado and Beverly Armstrong, No. 1, p. 13

Community

Four Top CEOs Say Schools Are Everybody's Business, by Louis V. Gertsner, Jr., David T. Kearns, Paul M. Ostergard and John L. Clendenin, No. 1, p. 28

Should Community Service Be Required for High School Graduation?— A report by the National Community Education Association, No. 4, p. 30

A Town Meeting Approach Draws the Community into Curriculum Revision, by James M. Towers, No. 1, p. 6

Which is More Important to Taxpayers—Academics or Extra Curricular Activities?, by James Towers, No. 4, p. 27

Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction Shares School PR Tips, by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, No. 3, p. 32

Parents

Build Parental Support for Your School—A school that is not in the top 10 can still be excellent, by Mel Heller and Margaret Lindquist, No. 3, p. 11

Ideas to Strengthen Parent-Teacher Relationships, by the National Coalition for Parent Involvement in Education, No. 4, p. 36

Parent Involvement Ideas—Surveys and reading suggestions, by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, No. 1, p. 17

Parents As Teachers—Missouri mandates preschool parent education in all districts, by Bonnie Hausman, No. 4, p. 11

Quiz to Reveal an Underused Resource—Parent Involvement, by the National Coalition for Parent Involvement in Education, No. 2, p. 26

Students

Communities Benefit by Tapping Teens' Talents, by John Calhoun and Jean O'Neil, No. 3, p. 9

A Major Adjustment in Focus of School-Community-Human Relationships in the National School Public Relations Association—Student achievement linked to PR, by the Editors, No. 3, p. 36

The Potential of Community Service to Enhance Social Responsibility, by Robert Rutter and Fred Newman, No. 2, p. 4

Students Benefit from an Overseas Exchange Program, by Robert J. Geradi, Robert H. Penkethman and David Carrington, No. 3, p. 12

Walk Around the Block—Students learn about their environment on the scene, by Debbie Lerner, No. 2, p. 8

Teachers

Attitudes Underlying the Politics of Parent Involvement—Teachers are apprehensive about the consequences of involvement, by Kenneth H. Ostrander and Katherine Ostrom, No. 2, p. 12

Begin a Mentor Program—Teacher + student + mentor add up to achievement, by Susan G. Weinberger, No. 4, p. 17

Raising Teacher Expectations of Students, by Wilhelmina Greene, No. 1, p. 25

Your Staff Newsletter—Tips for Top Quality, by Pennsylvania School Boards Association, No. 2, p. 36

Profiles

Profile of Washington School Public Relations Association, by Judy Parker, No. 2, p. 19

Subject/Author Index for Vol. 12, No. 1, p. 34

Subject Index—Departments

Case Study

A Hostile Press—A newspaper begins a vendetta against a new superintendent, by Doug Lare, No. 3, p. 17

On Air Blues for Wilson High—Antagonism arises over programing on a new high school radio station, by Phylis Johnson, No. 4, p. 20

When the Cheering Stops—An extra-curricular activity erupts into a feud, catching a principal in the middle, by W. F. Spiney, Jr., No. 1, p. 20

When the Last Word Is the First—Conflicts are caused by a grade change on a report card, by Philip T. West, No. 2, p. 29

Case Study Response

The Best Defense Is an Offense, by Carl R. Steinhoff, response to case study Vol. 13, No. 3; No. 4, p. 23

Dismiss or Educate, by San Lorenz, response to case study Vol. 12, No. 4; No. 1, p. 24

Friendly Must Be Firm, by Joe Basso, response to case study Vol. 13, No. 1; No. 2, p. 31

The School Principal Is the Main Culprit, by Geoffrey I. Tagg, response to case study Vol. 13, No. 2; No. 3, p. 20

We Reap What We Sow, by Jerry M. Lowe, response to case study Vol. 13, No. 2; No. 3, p. 19

Book Reviews

Beyond the Open Door: A Citizen's Guide to Increasing Public Access to Local School Boards by the National Committee for Citizens in Education, No. 1, p. 10

The Classic Touch: Lessons in Leadership from Homer to Hemingway by John Clemens and Douglas Mayer, No. 2, p. 34

Creating Schools for the Twenty-first Century: New Horizons for Local School Leaders, by Jessica Billings, No. 4, p. 34

Cultivating Foundation Support for Education, by Council for the Support and Advancement of Education, No. 3, p. 34

Do It Yourself Publicity, by David Ramacitti, No. 4, p. 34

Editing: The Design of Rhetoric, by Sam Dragga and Gwendolyn Gong, No. 1, p. 10

The Hero's Farewell: What Happens When CEOs Retire, by Jeffrey Sonnefeld, No. 3, p. 34

How to Work a Room: by Susan RoAne, No. 1, p. 10

INDEX Author & Subject

Index Author & Subject Volume 13 1990–1991

Subject Index—Features

Administrative

Comparing Three Philosophies of Home-School Collaboration—Programs based on these may be related to different levels of success, by Susan McAllister Swap, No. 3, p. 22

Facts Listing Will Reveal District Needs and Trends, by Robert Utermohlen, No. 3, p. 15

Japanese Education—What Can It Teach American Schools?, by James Fallows, No. 4, p. 4

A Model School-Community Relations Program Policy, by Albert E. Holliday, No. 1, p. 4

School-Community Relations for the Twenty-first Century—We need innovative, pro-active partnerships, by Marvin E. Edwards, No. 3, p. 4

Ten Commandments for Leaders, by Frederick Gies, No. 1, p. 36

Ten Lies We Keep Telling Ourselves—Falsehoods can be self-fulfilling prophecies, by William J. Banach, No. 3, p. 29

Schools of the Future—One District's Vision, by Yvette del Prado and Beverly Armstrong, No. 1, p. 13

Community

Four Top CEOs Say Schools Are Everybody's Business, by Louis V. Gertsner, Jr., David T. Kearns, Paul M. Ostergard and John L. Clendenin, No. 1, p. 28

Should Community Service Be Required for High School Graduation?— A report by the National Community Education Association, No. 4, p. 30

A Town Meeting Approach Draws the Community into Curriculum Revision, by James M. Towers, No. 1, p. 6

Which is More Important to Taxpayers—Academics or Extra Curricular Activities?, by James Towers, No. 4, p. 27

Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction Shares School PR Tips, by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, No. 3, p. 32

Parents

Build Parental Support for Your School—A school that is not in the top 10 can still be excellent, by Mel Heller and Margaret Lindquist, No. 3, p. 11

Ideas to Strengthen Parent-Teacher Relationships, by the National Coalition for Parent Involvement in Education, No. 4, p. 36

Parent Involvement Ideas—Surveys and reading suggestions, by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, No. 1, p. 17

Parents As Teachers—Missouri mandates preschool parent education in all districts, by Bonnie Hausman, No. 4, p. 11

Quiz to Reveal an Underused Resource—Parent Involvement, by the National Coalition for Parent Involvement in Education, No. 2, p. 26

Students

Communities Benefit by Tapping Teens' Talents, by John Calhoun and Jean O'Neil, No. 3, p. 9

A Major Adjustment in Focus of School-Community-Human Relationships in the National School Public Relations Association—Student achievement linked to PR, by the Editors, No. 3, p. 36

The Potential of Community Service to Enhance Social Responsibility, by Robert Rutter and Fred Newman, No. 2, p. 4

Students Benefit from an Overseas Exchange Program, by Robert J. Geradi, Robert H. Penkethman and David Carrington, No. 3, p. 12

Walk Around the Block—Students learn about their environment on the scene, by Debbie Lerner, No. 2, p. 8

Teachers

Attitudes Underlying the Politics of Parent Involvement—Teachers are apprehensive about the consequences of involvement, by Kenneth H. Ostrander and Katherine Ostrom, No. 2, p. 12

Begin a Mentor Program—Teacher + student + mentor add up to achievement, by Susan G. Weinberger, No. 4, p. 17

Raising Teacher Expectations of Students, by Wilhelmina Greene, No. 1, p. 25

Your Staff Newsletter—Tips for Top Quality, by Pennsylvania School Boards Association, No. 2, p. 36

Profiles

Profile of Washington School Public Relations Association, by Judy Parker, No. 2, p. 19

Subject/Author Index for Vol. 12, No. 1, p. 34

Subject Index—Departments

Case Study

A Hostile Press—A newspaper begins a vendetta against a new superintendent, by Doug Lare, No. 3, p. 17

On Air Blues for Wilson High—Antagonism arises over programing on a new high school radio station, by Phylis Johnson, No. 4, p. 20

When the Cheering Stops—An extra-curricular activity erupts into a feud, catching a principal in the middle, by W. F. Spiney, Jr., No. 1, p. 20

When the Last Word Is the First—Conflicts are caused by a grade change on a report card, by Philip T. West, No. 2, p. 29

Case Study Response

The Best Defense Is an Offense, by Carl R. Steinhoff, response to case study Vol. 13, No. 3; No. 4, p. 23

Dismiss or Educate, by San Lorenz, response to case study Vol. 12, No. 4; No. 1, p. 24

Friendly Must Be Firm, by Joe Basso, response to case study Vol. 13, No. 1; No. 2, p. 31

The School Principal Is the Main Culprit, by Geoffrey I. Tagg, response to case study Vol. 13, No. 2; No. 3, p. 20

We Reap What We Sow, by Jerry M. Lowe, response to case study Vol. 13, No. 2; No. 3, p. 19

Book Reviews

Beyond the Open Door: A Citizen's Guide to Increasing Public Access to Local School Boards by the National Committee for Citizens in Education, No. 1, p. 10

The Classic Touch: Lessons in Leadership from Homer to Hemingway by John Clemens and Douglas Mayer, No. 2, p. 34

Creating Schools for the Twenty-first Century: New Horizons for Local School Leaders, by Jessica Billings, No. 4, p. 34

Cultivating Foundation Support for Education, by Council for the Support and Advancement of Education, No. 3, p. 34

Do It Yourself Publicity, by David Ramacitti, No. 4, p. 34

Editing: The Design of Rhetoric, by Sam Dragga and Gwendolyn Gong, No. 1, p. 10

The Hero's Farewell: What Happens When CEOs Retire, by Jeffrey Sonnefeld, No. 3, p. 34

How to Work a Room: by Susan RoAne, No. 1, p. 10

In the Arena: A Memoir of Victory, Defeat and Renewal, by Richard M. Nixon, No. 4, p. 34

MegaSkills: How Families Can Help Children Succeed in School and Beyond, by Dorothy Rich, No. 3, p. 34

The News at Any Cost: How Journalists Compromise Their Ethics to Shape the News, by Tom Goldstein, No. 2, p. 34

No Contest: The Case Against Competition: Why We Lose in Our Race to Win, by Alfie Kohn, No. 2, p. 34

Power and Influence: Mastering the Art of Persuasion, by Robert L. Dilenschneider, No. 4, p. 34

Research

Community College Presidents Recognize the Need for PR Directors and the PR Function, by Robert Lyster, No. 1, p. 32

Educational PR Directors Rank Their Credibility With Local Media Higher Than Their Corporate Counterparts, by Randall W. Hines, No. 3, p. 21

Principals and PR Directors Mostly Agree on the Ideal PR Role for Senior High School Principals, But Substantially Disagree on Their PR Performance, by Leslie P. Schueckler and Philip T. West, No. 4, p. 24

Time Invested in Active Work on a School Tax Referendum Campaign Can Make a Difference, by Bennett A. Neiman, No. 2, p. 32

Voters Claim That They Vote for a School Issue More Often Than Against One, by Frank W. Lutz and Glenda Holand Mize, No. 2, p. 32

Author Index

Armstrong, Beverly - Schools of the Future—One District's Vision, V 1, p. 13

Banach, William J. - Ten Lies We Keep Telling Ourselves—Falsehoods can be self-fulfilling prophecies, No. 3, p. 29

Basso, Joe - Case Study Response: Friendly Must Be Firm, response to Vol. 13, No. 1, No. 2, p. 31

Calhoun, John - Communities Benefit by Tapping Teens' Talents, No. 3, p. 9

Carrington, David - Students Benefit from an Overseas Exchange Program, No. 3, p. 12

Clendenin, John L. - Four Top CEOs Say Schools Are Everybody's Business, No. 1, p. 28

Edwards, Marvin E. - School Community Relations for the 21st Century—We need innovative, pro-active partnerships, No. 3, p. 4

Fallows, James - Japanese Education—What Can It Teach American Schools?, No. 4, p. 4

Geradi, Robert J. - Students Benefit from an Overseas Exchange Program, No. 3, p. 12

Gerstner, Louis V. - Four Top CEOs Say Schools Are Everybody's Business, No. 1, p. 28

Gies, Frederick - Ten Commandments for Leaders, No. 1, p. 36

Greene, Wilhelmina - Raising Teacher Expectations of Students, No. 1, p. 25

Hausman, Bonnie - Parents as Teachers—Missouri Mandates pre-school parent education in all districts, No. 4, p. 11

Heller, Mel - Build Parental Support for Your School—A school that is not in the top 10 can still be excellent, No. 3, p. 11

Hines, Randall W. - Research: Educational PR Directors Rank Their Credibility with Local Media Higher Than Their Corporate Counterparts, No. 3, p. 21

Holliday, Albert E. - A Model School-Community Relations Program Policy, No. 1, p. 4

Johnson, Phylis - Case Study: On Air Blues for Wilson High, No. 4, p. 20

Kearns, David T. - Four Top CEOs Say Schools Are Everybody's Business, No. 1, p. 28

Lare, Doug - Case Study: A Hostile Press, No. 3, p. 17

Lerner, Debbie - Walk Around the Block—Students learn about their environment on the scene, No. 2, p. 8

Lorenz, San - Case Study Response: Dismiss or Educate, response to Vol. 12, No. 4, No. 1, p. 24

Lowe, Jerry M. - Case Study Response: We Reap What We Sow, response to Vol. 13, No. 2, No. 3, p. 19

Lutz, Frank W. - Research: Voters Claim That They Vote for a School Issue More Often Than Against One, No. 2, p. 32

Lyster, Robert - Research: Community College Presidents Recognize the Need for PR Directors and the PR Function, No. 1, p. 32

Mize, Glenda Holand - Research: Voters Claim That They Vote for a School Issue More Often Than Against One, No. 2, p. 32

National Coalition for Parent Involvement in Education - Quiz to Reveal an Underused Resource—Parent Involvement, No. 2, p. 26; Ideas to Strengthen Parent-Teacher Relationships, No. 4, p. 36

National Community Education Association - Should Community Service Be Required for High School Graduation?, No. 4, p. 30

Neiman, Bennett A.- Research: Time Invested in Active Work on a School Tax Referendum Campaign Can Make a Difference, No. 2, p. 32

O'Neil, Jean - Communities Benefit by Tapping Teens' Talents, No. 3, p. 9

Ostergard, Paul M. - Four Top CEOs Say Schools Are Everybody's Business, No. 1, p. 28

Ostrander, Kenneth H. - Attitudes Underlying the Politics of Parent Involvement—Teachers are apprehensive about the consequences of involvement, No. 2, p. 12

Ostrom, Katherine - Attitudes Underlying the Politics of Parent Involvement—Teachers are apprehensive about the consequences of involvement, No. 2, p. 12

Parker, Judy - Profile of the Washington School Public Relations Association, No. 2, p. 19

Penkethman, Robert H. - Students Benefit from an Overseas Exchange Program, No. 3, p. 12

Pennsylvania School Boards Association - Your Staff Newsletter—Tips for Top Quality, No. 2, p. 36

Prado, Yvette de - Schools of the Future—One District's Vision, No. 1, p. 13

Rutter, Robert - The Potential of Community Service to Enhance Social Responsibility, No. 2, p. 4

Schueckler, Leslie P. - Research: Principals and PR Directors Mostly Agree on the Ideal PR Role for Senior High School Principals, But Substantially Disagree on Their PR Performance, No. 4, p. 24

Spivey, Jr., W. F. - Case Study: When the Cheering Stops, No. 1, p. 20

Steller, Arthur W. - Book Reviews, No. 1, p. 10, No. 2, p. 34, No. 3, p. 34 and No. 4, p. 34

Swap, Susan McAllister - Comparing Three Philosophies of Home-School Collaboration—Programs based on these may be related to different levels of success, No. 3, p. 22

Tagg, Geoffrey J. - Case Study Response: The School Principal Is the Main Culprit, response to Vol. 13, No. 2, No. 3, p. 20

Towers, James M. - A Town Meeting Approach Draws the Community into Curriculum Revision, No. 1, p. 6; Which Is More Important to Taxpayers—Academics or Extra Curricular Activities?, No. 4, p. 27

Utermohlen, Robert - Fact Listing Will Reveal a District's Needs and Trends, No. 3, p. 15

Weinberger, Susan G. - Begin a Mentor Program—Teacher + Student + Mentor Add Up to Achievement, No. 4, p. 17

West, Philip T. - Research: Principals and PR Directors Mostly Agree on the Ideal PR Role for Senior High School Principals, But Substantially Disagree on Their PR Performance, No. 4, p. 24; Case Study: When the Last Word Is the First, No. 2, p. 29

Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction - Parent Involvement Ideas, No. 1, p. 17; Wisconsin DPI Shares School PR Tips, No. 3, p. 32 ■